Last traded for $1.35 million in 2006

Transformed by architect Clare Carter of Contemporary Architecture, this delightful house ticks all the boxes for easy family living in one of Cammeray's best streets within just 10 minutes of the city centre.

At entry level you'll find a lovely living room with bay window and window seat, and access to a covered balcony with easterly views to Quakers Hat Bay. The dining room has a gas fireplace and leads out to the balcony.

The skylit stone kitchen, centrally positioned between the dining space and the casual living room, has plenty to offer. The quality appliances being sold with the house include a Miele induction cooktop, oven and dishwasher, a Jenn-Air fridge and a Liebherr wine fridge. A Bose sound system and Sony Bravia flat-screen TV will also stay.

The casual living space leads out to a covered terrace, a heated saltwater pool and a mature, terraced garden. The main bedroom with en suite and a separate, customised office are also on this level, each overlooking the pool through picture windows.

Upstairs are three more bedrooms and two bathrooms plus a playroom or media room ideal for the kids.

THE AGENT, DEREK FARMER, SAYS:

"I love the contemporary design. It's a perfect family home with plenty of accommodation. I like the separate living spaces, which centre on the kitchen but are not on top of each other. Cammeray is always highly sought after for its easy access to the city."

THE OWNER SAYS:

"What we love most about the house is the open-plan layout, the elevation, privacy and upstairs kids' retreat. It's a wonderful family home, great for entertaining and minutes from the city. The front balcony is our favourite place for morning coffee, soaking up the sun and the magical water views."
